The VIU Academic Council will select two out of the three proposals submitted. Successful candidates will teach two courses during one semester.

Course proposals, a curriculum vitae and a covering letter should be submitted via email to the candidate's university representative on the VIU Academic Council (see page 4)² and in cc. to the Dean of VIU, Prof. Carlo Giupponi dean@univiu.org:

² Further selection criteria in single universities may apply. Refer to respective Academic Council member for details.

Each course proposal should include the following:

- a) A course description of approximately 500 words
- b) Learning outcomes of the course
- c) Teaching and evaluation methods, including the percentage of the overall grade assigned to each evaluation
- d) Bibliography - all reading materials should be in English
- e) Required preliminary knowledge (if any)
- f) indication of preferred semester(s)

The Curriculum Vitae should consist of a maximum of three pages, with up to four pages of publications attached separately.

Applicants are invited to consider the guidelines and the course abstracts provided in:

- Appendix 1_VIU Globalization Program and Guidelines for Professors
- Appendix 2_VIU Globalization Program Structure and Course Abstracts

All course proposals and materials must be in English and in electronic format.

1st Deadline: March 15, 2021

2nd Deadline: September 15, 2021

The VIU Academic Council will meet in April and October 2021 to discuss the proposals. Selected professors will be notified by their university representatives shortly thereafter.

Remuneration of Professors representing any of the following member institutions:

(Università Ca' Foscari Venezia, Università Iuav di Venezia, Università degli Studi di Padova or CNR- National Research Council of Italy).

Professors teaching one 40-hour course in the Globalization Program of Venice International University will be paid € 3,000 (three thousand euro) gross. The necessary tax deductions will be applied at source.

In the event that the teaching load be shared among two or more professors, the sum will be shared proportionally.

Remuneration of Professors representing any of the following member universities:

(Boston College;; Duke University; European University at St. Petersburg; Korea University; KU Leuven, Ludwig Maximilians Universität; Stellenbosch University, Tel Aviv University; Tsinghua University; Tor Vergata University of Rome; University of Bordeaux; University of Exeter; University of Lausanne; University of Ljubljana, Waseda University):

Professors teaching two 40-hour courses in the Globalization Program of Venice International University will receive a Travel and Housing Allowance of €8,500 (eight thousand five hundred euro) gross, to contribute to travel, housing and auxiliary costs. According to the guidelines established by the VIU Board of Directors, this sum is gross and all inclusive. The allowance is granted to one Professor from each of the above mentioned member universities teaching at least two courses (40 hours each) during the Globalization Program. In the event that the teaching load be shared among two or more professors, the sum will be shared proportionally.

According to the Italian tax system the allowance is subject to tax and therefore 30% is deducted at source for personal income tax (IRPEF according to the Italian tax system). The sum paid by VIU to the Italian Tax Authority is deductible from the amount payable on personal income to the professor's National Tax Authority. Alternatively a Professor may present a certificate of tax residency in a foreign country and therefore receive the gross sum.
