A.Y. 2019-2020 (up to July 30, 2020)

KA107 2019-1-IT02-KA107-062057

A.Y. 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 (up to July 30, 2021)

Who can take part?

Teaching staff of the Italian member universities who:

- have taught in the VIU Globalization Program
- have taught in the VIU Intensive Graduate Activities (PhD Academies, Graduate Seminars, Summer Schools)
- wish to develop collaboration with colleagues in one of the destination universities, with a view to proposing a VIU Intensive Graduate Activity
- wish to continue inter-departmental collaboration that has emerged from VIU joint activities (i.e. candidates who may not have been directly involved in joint VIU activities, but where there is demonstrable engagement between their home university department and the host university department).

The member of teaching staff may be full professor, associate professor, short-term contract professor, researcher, research fellow, and must be in employment at the member university at time of application and during the proposed period of staff mobility for teaching.

Destinations:

VIU member universities in selected KA107 partner countries:

- Institut de la Recherche Scientifique, Canada
- Tel Aviv University, Israel
- European University at St. Petersburg, Russian Federation

The duration of teaching:

KA107 partner countries (Canada, Israel, Russian Federation)

- Minimum duration of teaching: 5 days
- Maximum duration of teaching: 60 days

Teaching hours: Staff must deliver at least 8 hours of teaching per week. If the mobility is longer than one week, the minimum number of teaching hours shall be proportional to the duration of the mobility.

*Travel days are not included in the calculation of the minimum duration.
Subsistence allowances for up to 2 days travel either side of the mobility may also be funded if requested at time of application.*

Mobility Program Proposal

At the time of application, the candidate must submit an application form and mobility program proposal, which will describe the planned teaching activity, the overall objectives of the mobility, and the expected outcomes. The mobility program proposal must be co-signed by the Department Director in the home university, and submitted together with a letter of invitation from the colleague in the host university, (which must be a signed letter on letterhead, including the dates of the intended activity, and the number of teaching hours).

Deadlines

- February 29, 2020 for mobility between 1 April and 30 July 2020
- April 30, 2020 for mobility between 1 August and 31 December 2020
- July 30, 2020 for mobility between 1 January and 30 July 2021

These should be considered as the final deadlines for the mobility periods.
Early applications will be accepted and evaluated.

Funding | Travel & Subsistence

Erasmus+ provides funding for staff mobility as a grant contribution towards subsistence and travel. Expense claims must be submitted within 1 month of the completion of the mobility.

Travel

Maximum travel grants are set by the European Commission according to the distance travelled at the following rates:

Distance from home university to host university	Maximum amounts reimbursed
10-99 Km	€ 20,00
100-499 km	€ 180,00
500-1999 km	€ 275,00
2000-2999 km	€ 360,00
3000–3999 km	€ 530,00
4000–7999 km	€ 820,00
8000 km or more	€ 1.500,00

To calculate the distance the European Commission's online tool must be used.

The distance to be calculated is one way – from the location of the sending organisation to that of the receiving organisation. However, please note that the grant amount covers the outward and return journey from home to host institution.

Individual Support – Daily Allowance

The subsistence grant is a contribution towards all other costs for the individual including travel within the city, accommodation, meals and snacks.

Actual costs can be reimbursed up to these maximums, and are paid on the basis of receipted expenditure.

Maximum daily allowance:

up to 14th day: € 180,00

15th to 60th day: €126,00

Please note that staff will be responsible for arranging their own travel and insurance.
