

VIU Summer School Critical Infrastructure Resilience

Louis Boutaud de la Combe Business Coach

Louis Boutaud de la Combe is a Master Business Coach and Master in Neuro-linguistic Programming, a success accelerator. He has 25 years of experience in providing resilience support to national and international organizations, businesses or institutions through collective and individual coaching dynamics or as an expert in processes and strategies.

He is both an initiator of business models, as well as a facilitator of structural changes. He works at Ministerial and CEO levels in Europe, the United States and the Caribbean. His 12 years of experience in high socioeconomic, security or environmental vulnerabilities have provided him with sound expertise on crisis recovery, reconstruction and development in complex and politically sensitive contexts.

Working for the World Bank, he provided strategic and policy support to the Haitian Prime Minister for the 2010 earthquake emergency and recovery phases. He also worked for UNDP in disaster risk management. Recently, the business coaching approach he designed and implemented for USAID's Strengthening the Value Chains (LEVE) program in Haiti, produced LEVE best rating ever in terms of return on investment. Boutaud de la Combe holds a Master II in Business and Tax law and a Master II in Legal Management of Business Organizations.